Finding library resources - DiscoverEd

DiscoverEd

DiscoverEd is the library's discovery tool and library catalogue. Use it to search for books, journals, articles, databases, online access and much more. You can find a simple guide we've made for getting started with DiscoverEd here (Microsoft Sway).

Other useful help pages from our website include:

- Searching DiscoverEd
- DiscoverEd FAQs
- Using the Library
- How to borrow and renew books
- Accessing e-resources

Don't forget that you can ask the Library Helpdesk staff for advice and assistance.

Visiting the Law Library

The Law Library is located in Old College alongside the Edinburgh Law School. Details of opening hours, location and contacts for the Law Library can be found on the Law Library webpages:

- Law Library Opening Hours
- Law Library Location & Contact Information

We've recently developed a brilliant Law Library Orientation Guide (Microsoft Sway) which you can use to familiarise yourself with the library and its facilities before you visit. If you would like to find similar

Legal Information Skills

This guide is aimed at students who are new to finding legal information. It will take you through searching the Library resources, how to find your course readings, and also how to search key databases.

Introduction

Hello and welcome to this short introduction to finding legal information and resources, created by your Law Librarians.

We will be looking at where to find information and also some practical skills such as searching on the databases.

We will finish with telling you where you can get help and advice.

The learning outcomes for this guide are that you will:

- Know the resources and tools where legal resources and course readings can be accessed
- Know how to search for required material in the key resources
- Understand the importance and basic principles of referencing
- Know where to get help and further training

Resource Lists

Resource lists are online reading lists compiled by your course organiser to help you find the resources you need for your assigned reading. Many resource lists are organised into Essential, Recommended and Further Reading. Some course organisers prefer to list the reading week by week to help you keep on track with your seminars.

You can access your Resource List through your Learn pages, or using the Resource List website and searching for your course:

Law Databases training

If you are not familiar with legal databases look at Law Librarian Resources Media Hopper Channel for recordings of live demos.

Induction sessions for all levels include a brief introduction to using these popular databases. We also run a specific Library Bitesize for this, Using Legal Databases. You can book on to future sessions using the MyEd Events booking system.

Westlaw and Lexis each employ a student representative at Edinburgh who can also provide training. See the Law Subject Guide for contact information for them.

Practical Law

- Practitioner side of WLUK. Contains practice notes, articles and advice written by practitioners in the UK
- Use the dropdown button next to the Westlaw Edge logo or find it on the Law Databases page directly
- Check out the Law Schools Resource Menu by clicking Browse Menu button and then finding Law Schools on the right of the dropdown list.

Lexis+

Lexis+ is a new combined platform which we moved to in September 2022. It contains both resources for LexisLibrary (academic resources such as cases, commentary, books etc) and LexisPSL (practitioner resources such as practice notes, forms and application – used specifically by Diploma students).

Lexis+ demo on Law Librarian Media Hopper Channel

Modules include: Restructuring & Insolvency; Banking & Finance; Commercial; Dispute Resolution; Property; Private Client; Corporate; Employment; TMT (Technology, Media and Telecommunications); Public Law

Finding ebooks

Core ebooks for the Diploma

- Greens Sheriff Court and Sheriff Appeal Court Rules 23/24
- Greens Solicitors Professional Hand Book 23/24
- Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 – 21st edition
- Hennessy: Civil Procedure & Practice - 5th edition
- Gretton & Reid: Conveyancing – 5th edition

All available as ebooks through Proview (special access for Diploma Students), the last two also available via Westlaw Books. All also available in print from the library.

Westlaw Books

Use the top navigation bar to select 'Westlaw Books' on the right hand side to browse available titles.

Not all ebooks available via Westlaw are listed in DiscoverEd so you may need to check directly

You will see all the titles in our subscription (several hundred) so you can then search by title to find the ones you want. When you find them you can 'bookmark' them to make them more easily accessible to you.

The screenshot shows the Westlaw Edge UK website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the following items: 'What's on Westlaw?' (with 'Show less' and 'Show more' links), 'THOMSON REUTERS WESTLAW EDGE UK', 'History', 'Folders', 'Favourites', 'Alerts', and 'Sign out'. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with 'Cases', 'Legislation', 'Journals', 'Current Awareness', 'Index of Legal Terms', 'EU', and 'Westlaw Books'. A search bar is located below the navigation bars, containing the text 'Enter terms, citations, titles or questions' and a search icon. The main content area is titled 'Browse by Topic' and contains a grid of legal topics: Commercial, Companies and partnerships, Contract, Crime, Data and communications, Employment and work, Environment, Equality and human rights, Family, Finance, Health and social welfare, Insolvency, Intellectual property, International, Land, Legal system, Litigation and dispute resolution, Local government, Personal injury, Planning and construction, Public and constitutional law, Social regulation, Tax, Torts, Transport and shipping, and Trusts and personal property. To the right of the grid is a 'More resources' section with links to 'Brexit', 'Sanctions', 'Scots Law', 'Cite & Print', 'News', 'Westlaw International', and 'Westlaw US'.

Proview Books

<https://next-proview.thomsonreuters.com/>

You will receive an email inviting you to set up a OnePass profile, which you should do with your university email/the email address you received your invitation to.

Remember your username and password. When you are registered, the log in screen will take you straight to your Library where the accessible books are listed.
